WANTED

Claire Voyant

Claire Voyant

OCCUPATION

FORMER TABLOID PSYCHIC

DESCRIPTION

Hired by Carmen to be the gang's palm-reader and all-around sage, this red-headed siren is more a jinx than an accurate forecaster. Claire's last correct prediction was in 1958, when she guessed that the new Pope would be Catholic. Inept at reading the I Ching, the Ouija Board and the U.S. Average of Economic Indicators, this emerald-eyed fortune teller spends her time scouring garage sales for original Norman Rockwell paintings. Patterning her work ethic on that of her pet Opossum, Dishrag, Claire now sleeps all day and stays up all night reading the fortunes of the V.I.L.E. gang members.
